

Fallen Leaves

Fallen leaves from the trees that the Lord mightily grew.

Lord those leaves were they not the first adam ?

Which strived to survive but now are dead.

The futility of the flesh to try to escape your sovereignty...

So that alas you may live, for all to rejoice. (the second adam).

The pain and suffering, weeping shall soon come to pass in the twinkling of an eye.

Like I see all of those million's of dead first adams (leaves) around me

Will be either resurrected in the first resurrection or the second.
